About

BIOGRAPHY

Judy Huff is a nurse practitioner with the medical oncology team at Goshen Center for Cancer Care. She treats patients with cancer as they go through chemotherapy or biotherapy and helps manage symptoms of treatment. As part of her approach to care, Judy serves as an advocate and helps patients and their families navigate through treatment at a difficult time in their lives.

Interests in photography, cooking, baking and amateur woodworking keep Judy busy when she is away from patient care. She enjoys hiking with her husband and Goldendoodle and indulges in a good read whenever she can.

PHILOSOPHY OF CARE

Judy builds patient relationships based on trust and mutual respect as part of her patient-centered approach. She provides patients with support and information to help them take an active role in the decision-making process.
