About

BIOGRAPHY

Tracy Vander Reyden is a board certified nurse practitioner with Goshen Orthopedics. She cares for patients with a wide range of orthopedic conditions, including broken bones, strained muscles and degenerative joint conditions.

Tracy is trained to assess, diagnose and treat a wide range of illnesses and injuries as an advanced practice provider. Her nursing experience includes service in family medicine practices, emergency departments and surgery centers.

Sports play a big role in Tracy's life when she is away from clinical nursing as she is an avid fan of her children's athletic teams. She also enjoys being out on a boat, camping or on travel adventures.

PHILOSOPHY OF CARE

Patient education is at the heart of Tracy's holistic approach to care. She helps patients understand their condition and treatment options so they can make informed decisions about their care. By working together with patients, Tracy builds a treatment plan that meets individual needs and preferences.
